

Vol/Jg 38, No/Deel 2-2, Dec/Des 2024

CONTENTS/INHOUDSOPGAWE

Editorial/Redaksioneel

The Berlin Missionary Society in South Africa with particular focus on the Transvaal, 1834-1975.

Alan Kirkaldy

Alexander Merensky and the Berlin Mission in the early years of the Transvaal Republic, 1859-1882.

Gunther Pakendorf

Reminiscences of mission life in the Transvaal, 1859-1882 by Alexander Merensky.

Translated by Gunther Pakendorf

The life and death of the Mission Village at Botshabelo Mission Station, Mpumalanga, South Africa.

Caroline Booth & Natalie Swanepoel

Not mere assistants – ‘Conventicles’, African intermediaries, ‘Apostates’ and the introduction of Christianity to Vendloland in the nineteenth century.

Alan Kirkaldy

Jonas Raubaas Mohaaschwa and the introduction of Christianity to Mamabololand in the late nineteenth century.

Margrit Schulze & Lize Kriel

The social order of remembering Helene Franz’s forty years of devotion to nursing work in Blaauwberg, Northern Transvaal: Obituary analysis.

Mahunele Thotse

African-language periodicals of the Berlin Mission Church during the first half of the twentieth century, northern South Africa.

Berniece Manyike and Lize Kriel

-ooOoo-